Madras.

Sir,

The limits of the Panchayat Court at Bommarbettu in the Udipi Taluk of this District were last revised in G.O. No. 1957 Law (General) Department dated 22-6-27. The residents of Kudigrama, one of the villages included in the court's jurisdiction, now complain about the present grouping and desire the constitution of a separate court for their village. They represent that owing to the existence of two rivers between Kudigrama and Bommarbettu unfordable during the monsoon, the existing arrangement deprives them of the advantages of the court. The representation have been examined and found to be true. The residents of Permankila are also anxious to have a Panchayat Court. I therefore recommend the abolition of the court at Bommarbettu as at present constituted and the constitution of two courts as shown in the enclosed notification. These proposals may be approved to have effect from 1-7-28.
